

Brad Plummer, CPCU, GBA

Senior Vice President, Employee Benefits Practice

Cottingham & Butler

800-793-5235 Ext. 5185 | bplummer@cottinghambutler.com

Brad Plummer joined Cottingham & Butler in 1998 serving as the Director of Benefit Services for five years. Since then, Brad has been a Vice President in the Risk Management Practice serving as a sales executive and sales manager. In February of 2009, Brad was promoted to Senior Vice President of the Employee Benefits Practice.

Since 1991, Brad has gathered a broad base of insurance experience, including positions in underwriting, wholesale distribution, property and casualty and employee benefits sales, sales management, and project based consulting. He continues to work in both fields of Property and Casualty and Employee Benefits.

In addition to numerous insurance-related designations, Brad received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois in 1991. He has also obtained his Masters of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Iowa in 1998. Prior to working at Cottingham & Butler, Brad worked for Great American Insurance Co, First Western Insurance, and AIG.