

John Van Dyke

Vice President, Risk Management

Cottingham & Butler

800-793-5235 Ext. 5461 | jvandyke@cottinghambutler.com

John Van Dyke joins C&B as a Vice President for the company's risk management practice. With a comprehensive understanding of risk management and 30 years of experience developing and implementing insurance and other risk solutions in the property & casualty sector, John offers in-depth industry knowledge and expertise.

John has worked with a variety of clients meeting their risk management and safety needs. Client industries include food processing, equipment manufacturing, medical, biomedical, professional sports teams, construction, auto dealer and repair, law firms, and venture capitalists to name a few.

Prior to joining Cottingham & Butler, John served as a Managing Director for Arthur J. Gallagher & Company for ten years. Prior to that, John was the President and CEO of an insurance broker, BHK&R, in Minneapolis. John is based out of Cottingham & Butler's Denver, Colorado office.